

The Company's Articles of Association in respect of shareholders' meeting

The Shareholder Meeting

Article 31. The Board of Directors shall hold the Annual General Meeting of Shareholders within four (4) months from the end of the accounting period of the Company.

All other shareholders' meetings further than that in the first paragraph are called Extraordinary Meeting. The Board of Directors may summon an Extraordinary Meeting of Shareholders at any time deemed appropriate.

One or more shareholders holding the aggregate number of shares of not less than ten (10) percent of the total number of shares sold may, by subscribing their names, request the Board of Directors in writing to call an extraordinary meeting at any time, but the reasons for calling such meeting shall be clearly stated in such request. In this regard, the Board of Directors shall proceed to call a meeting of shareholders to be held within forty-five (45) days as from the date of the request in writing from the shareholders is received.

In case the Board of Directors fails to arrange for the meeting within such period under the third paragraph, the shareholders who have subscribed their names or other shareholders holding the required aggregate number of shares may themselves call the meeting within forty-five (45) days as from the date of expiration of the period under the third paragraph. In such case, the meeting is deemed to be shareholders' meeting called by the Board of Directors and the Company shall be responsible for necessary expenses as may be incurred in the course of convening such meeting and the Company shall reasonably provide facilitation.

In the case where, at the meeting called by the shareholders under the fourth paragraph, the number of the shareholders presented does not constitute quorum as prescribed by Article 33, the shareholders under the forth paragraph shall jointly compensate the Company for the expenses incurred in arrangements for holding that meeting.

Article 32 In calling shareholders meeting, the Board of Directors shall proceed as follows:

- Prepare a notice starting the place, date, time, agenda of the meeting and matters to be proposed to the meeting together with reasonable details by indicating clearly whether it is the matter proposed for such matters.

- Delivery the above notice to the shareholders at least 7 days prior to the date of the meeting; and

- Public the above notice in a newspaper for 3 consecutive days and at least 3 days prior to the date of the meeting.

A Place of shareholders meeting can be convened at the province where the Company's head office is located or other place that it decided by the Board of Directors.

The Quorum

Article 33 In order to constitute a quorum, there must be at least 25 shareholders and proxies (If any) attending at a shareholders meeting or at least one half of the total number of shareholders and such shareholders must hold not less than one-third of the total number of the company's share sold.

At any shareholders meeting, if one hour has passed since the time specified for the meeting and the number of shareholders attending the meeting is still inadequate for a quorum as defined in the first paragraph of Article 33, and: if such shareholders meeting was called by the request of the shareholder, such meeting shall be cancelled; but if such shareholders meeting was not called by the request of the shareholders, the Board of Directors shall call for another meeting by sending a notice to the shareholders at least 7 days prior to the date of the meeting. At the subsequent meeting, a quorum prescribed in the first paragraph of article 33 is not required.

Article 34 The chairman of the Board of Directors has a duty to be the chairman of the meeting. In case the chairman of the Board is not present at the meeting or cannot perform his duty, and if there is a vice-chairman shall be the chairman of the meeting. If there is no vice-chairman, or if there is a vice-chairman but he/she cannot perform his/her duties, the shareholders present at the meeting shall elect one among themselves as the chairman of meeting.
